Carleton Houſe, October 13.

This Day Signior Zon, Reſident from Venice, had his firſt private Audience of Her Royal Highneſs the Princeſs Dowager of Wales; to which he was introduced by Sir Clement Cottrell Dormer, Knt. Maſter of the Ceremonies.

Boſton in New-England, July 22. On Tueſday Evening came to Town, the Hon. Thomas Hutchinſon, Eſq; Judge of Probate for this County, and one of the Commiſſioners at the late Convention at Albany. By whom we are informed, that the Indians of the different Nations left that City in a good Temper; and that all the Commiſſioners had left Albany on the 12th Inſtant. On the 10th arrived here from Falmouth in Caſco-Bay, the Ship Burreau, Captain Joſeph Inches, Commander, in the Government's Service, with ſeveral of his Majeſty's Council, the Speaker, and divers Members of the Honourable Houſe of Repreſentatives, who attended his Excellency the Governor to the Eaſtward, and were preſent at the Conference with the Indians. By whom we have received the agreeable News, that the Norridwacks and Penobſcots, readily ratified and confirmed the former Peace; and told the Governor, they had no Objection to his Excellency's building Forts wherever he thought fit; and, as a Proof of their Sincerity, ſeveral of their young Men deſired to come and reſide among us, five of whom are already in Town, and ſeveral of their Children are expected in the Fall, for the Benefit of Education: And Major General Winſlow, with the Forces under his Command, is accordingly gone up Kennebeck-River, in order to build ſeveral Forts thereon. His Excellency the Governor intends to ſtay at Falmouth ſome Time longer, to expedite the important Affairs now carrying on in the Eaſtern Parts, where our Forces amount to about 1000 Men.

New-York, July 29. On the 16th Inſtant, our Lieutenant-Governor arrived here from Albany, having ſettled Matters to the entire Satisfacton of all the different Nations of the Indians that attended the Congreſs at that Place. And the next Day the Commiſſioners from Philadelphia, Maryland, and Virginia, with ſeveral others, arrived here from the ſame Place. From whence we learn, that at the ſaid Congreſs, the Commiſſioners from the ſeveral Governments were unanimouſly of Opinion, That an Union of the Colonies was abſolutely neceſſary; and a Plan of Union was accordingly drawn up by the ſaid Commiſſioners, in order to be laid before their reſpective Conſtituents.
